

Ace Ticket Opens 5th Location in Greater Boston

New location makes it easier to get great seats.

(BOSTON, MA) August 28, 2006 – Ace Ticket, New England’s number one ticket agency for premium seating and sold-out events, announced today the opening of its new headquarters in Greater Boston located at 20 Franklin Street in Allston. As part of a company-wide strategy, the new headquarters helps Ace Ticket to further substantiate the role it plays in local events and makes it easier for New Englanders to purchase tickets.

“The new location will support the expansion of our services and dedication to our customers with added sales representatives and services,” said Jim Holzman, founder and CEO of Ace Ticket. “The new location allows us to keep up with demand and with our commitment to make tickets and service more attainable.”

The new headquarters joins four other existing Ace Ticket locations in Brookline, Framingham, Saugus and Chelmsford. Conveniently located in Allston, Massachusetts the new facility is easily accessible from the Massachusetts turnpike. The location provides Ace Ticket customers with a full range of services that include: same day ticket purchase, pick up and door-to-door delivery, preferred account member benefits, sell online tickets option and live support.
